Dates are important to every Hornet in the Howe hive, whether they be historical or social. Dates pop up in classes and also appear on our calendars concerning Howe's social functions. Events at Howe seem to be grouped into seasons so the 1957 HILLTOPPER has followed a calendar theme, presenting Howe's school year by the seasons. Just as Phil Malvase, student council president for '56-'57, marks council meeting dates so . . .

FALL at Howe means the brilliant reds, golds, and oranges of autumn attire. Trees by the parking lot and along the boulevard parade their fashionable fall hues. School doors open, classes begin in full swing, and once more insects flee from net-waving biology students. Howeites carry on this fall spirit at the first football games, wearing plaid bermudas and singing our fight song. The Brown and Gold dance, Revelers' Play, and mock election verify that fall has arrived and a new school year has begun.

"Ya Ain't Nothing But A Hound Dog!" Driver Barbara Voss and passenger Linda Maxwell discuss the latest pop record hits with Beverly Conaway, Carolyn Green, Ronnie Carrieo, Karen Kemper, and Wally Meredith.

Howe's calendar begins

Shouted greetings, motors racing in the parking lot, conversations bubbling, footsteps on the stairs, and the clicking of locker combinations are all part of our buzz in the hive on opening day. Old friends greet each other with the news of summer vacations and latest gossip, while freshmen are busy acquainting themselves with Howe. Once again a line forms at the bookstore where Howeites count out their pennies to buy books for this year's classes; and while struggling to settle back into the school routine we resolve that this year "we're really going to study." However through open classroom windows soon drifts sounds of the R.O.T.C. squads drilling, the band practicing outside, and gym classes cheering on their teams; these and the hot September sun make it easy to forget study resolutions and to spend time in day-dreaming.

September 5 is encircled on Howeite calendars and remembered as the start of a new school year.

Julie Pratt and Janet Hartle primp in their locker mirror while Jim Grubaugh suffers on the sidelines.

In preparing for this all important date, the custodians have washed chalk boards, waxed floors, varnished furniture, and checked lighting. Teachers, too, have worked hard arranging class schedules and preparing lesson plans.

As the 8:10 warning bell rings, confident seniors, carefree juniors, cocky sophomores, and confused freshmen start for their classes where new studies, new teachers, and new friends await.

After a session of form filling, the halls burst into life as the dismissal bell rings. Howeites slam locker doors and rush homeward, out for a coke, or to meet friends and exchange views of this first day. Though groaning about filling out seemingly dozens of official forms most Howeites recover to meet the next day gladly.

After comparing schedules our questions are answered and doubts cleared up as to whether that certain boy will sit beside us in English class or which period we will eat.

with opening day . . .

Opening day would not be complete without mentioning the mad dashes to the cafeteria and the long wait in line, but finally everyone manages to find a seat near his friends. Lunch hall means the chance to relax, talk "legally" with your friends, listen to latest pop records, or do some last minute cramming for that big history test; incidentally we do manage to stoke up on a few calories while we're in Room 17.

Sometime during this busy first week an assembly is squeezed into our school schedule. The whole school participates; we recognize each class and introduce new faculty members, ending with a football pep rally.

Just as important is the freshmen mixer sponsored by our student council. Here freshmen shed some of their strangeness, replacing it with a growing interest in Howe; after school activities and clubs also offer opportunities to become better acquainted with each other.

Consulting his guidebook Paul Hankin tries not to look like the freshie he is as he hunts for his classrooms.

Custodians Leonard Leffew, Elmer Summit, and Walter Frick set up a fence which will protect our campus shrubs.

"We've got Rembrandts, too!" Howeite's hidden talents can be discovered in art classes. Here, Bill Spell demonstrates his specialty, ceramics.

. . . the start of new

Because a Howeite's school career is based on his curricular activities, homeroom teachers and parents help him plan a four year program most suitable to his present and future needs. This plan begins with the "required" three R's which have expanded into English, social studies, math, science, and physical education.

Elective subjects then complete the program and add variety. The Howe student may choose these subjects from the departments of art, music, home economics, industrial arts, business education, foreign language, and R.O.T.C.

Most classes are one period each, but our laboratory courses meet for two periods, eighty minutes, so that the art students can collect their materials and physics students can set up experiments and still get considerable work accomplished before the class time ends. Two to three days a week are spent in lab work with the remainder used for study, lectures, or trips.

Wendell Williams outruns his classmates trying for a touchdown in physical education class.

classes . . . familiar faces . . .

Among regularly required courses, Howeites must take a classroom driving course, "Behind the Book," a non-credit course in safe driving principles. This may be followed by "Behind the Wheel" if students have beginner's driving permits.

Usually each student's school day consists of eight periods, one of which is lunch and another a study hall. Taking a minimum of four credits a semester a Howe graduate should have at least thirty-two credits; however, most have many more by taking five credits in a semester.

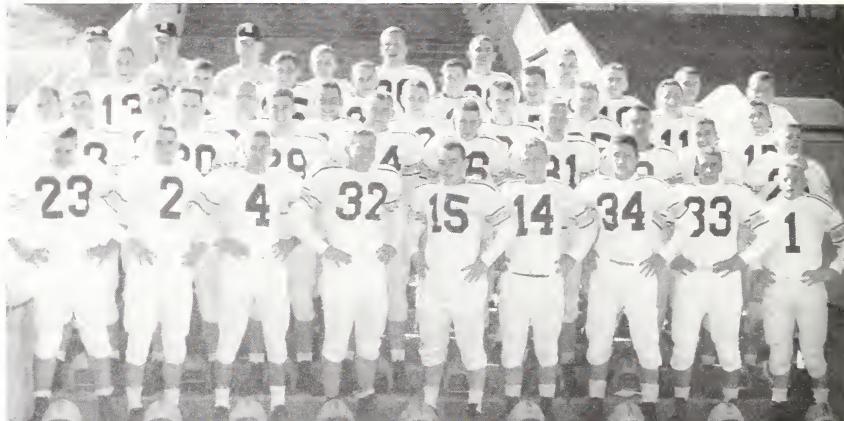

Howeites who do not engage in after-school activities often find they can keep up their studies and still hold part-time jobs. Many of these jobs are secured through Howe's placement office.

Thus, each student's four year program is geared by himself, his parents, and his teachers to prepare him for his chosen future.

Age old formulas work again as Margie Johnsen and Gary Holobek distill water in chemistry.

Coach Sam Kelley's fighting Hornets made a great showing at the all-city jamboree against Shortridge, which offered a promising outlook for the coming season. However, the Brown and Gold could not live up to this early promise. Ron Heath, the only returning letterman, did his best to give the team spirit. In the next game, the first of the season, Howe lost to Tech by three touchdowns. The spirit to win was still with our grididers as they came back to roll over Attucks.

On September 14 the team defeated Crispus Attucks, 13-6, at the Tech Field.

second quarter, end Alan Fiers took a pass from Bob Deeter, and lateraled to fullback Ron Heath, who scampered over for the first touchdown of the evening. The try for the extra point was missed, but the score was pushed to 13-0 when halfback Bob Bransford rounded right end for 28 yards, and Charles Schulz kicked the extra point.

Attucks then came right back on the kickoff when Richard Stewart scooted 85 yards for their only tally.

In the next five games the team showed spirit, but the Hornets just didn't have the power to overcome their opponents. Warren Central, however, was surprised when the Hornets came through with a 6-0 victory. Howe ended the season at Washington with another defeat.

There were several injuries, which kept some of the varsity players out of the games. They began during the week preceding the Shortridge game when Bob Bransford cracked two of his ribs in practice. Then, during the actual game with Shortridge, three of the starting team were sent to the hospital: Steve Wise, Mike Gill, and Bob Deeter.

Awards were given to players on the football team at the athletic banquet following the grid season. Alan Fiers received the "Most Valuable Player Award" given by the 400 Club. He also was chosen for the all-city team. Dave Eicher received the "Best Mental Attitude Award" given by the Kiwanis Club.

Jerry Mitchell cuts back across the field to gain yardage.

Dwayne Watson charges through the line to add another first down.

Queen Diane Simons reigns with her court at her side. They are Linda Powell, Sandy Bell, Sue Osborne, and Ann Weatherly.

Dwayne Watson drives hard for precious yards.

Ronnie Heath, another member of the team chosen for the all-city team, was the captain and played fullback.

The senior players who received sweaters were Jack Burgan, Mike Gill, Phil Malvase, Charles Schulz, Mickey Shields, Bob Thompson, Don Wallace, Dwayne Watson, Ron Young, Jerry Ohrberg, Fiers, and Heath.

Mr. Kelley, Mr. Richard Guyer, and Mr. Harrison Richardson are the varsity football coaches. Mr. Kelley serves as both athletic director and head football coach. Mr. Guyer and Mr. Richardson assist him as line coaches.

Special credit should go to a faculty member and four students, who were behind-the-scenes workers for this year's squad. They are Mr. Alvin Geier, the equipment manager and head trainer, and his assistants, better known as student managers, Don Dennis, Phil Arthur, Roy Lynn and Jim Aten.

Jack Burgan deflects an important pass.

The varsity football squad should do better in the 1957 season with returning players Max Woodbury, John Shortridge, Steve Shackle, Bill Price, Jerry Dobbs, and Ron Carrico.

The reserves came through with a winning season, coached by Mr. Richardson. After dropping their first three games, the team retaliated with victories in the last four, closing with a 10 point win over Washington. Leading in the reserve scoring department were Max Woodbury, Tom Sheppard, and Bill Price.

Howe's frosh found the going rough this past season. The "little gridders" finished the year with a 1-5 record. Darlan Billups and Steve Brunner led the scoring 31 and 7 points respectively. Mr. Combs coaches the rhinies team.

son, Lauretta Cashman, Jeannette Campbell, Barbara Biberman, Nena Sordean, and Mary Gebhardt through the various twists and twirls.

Students boost school spirit

Deanna Depositor. The freshmen was composed of (front row) Linda Daniels, Ginny Jackson, Bob Snyder, Polly Nicholas, Danny Graves, Nancy Cotton, and Joy Tillery.

Harriers place fourth in sectionals

"Spirit! Spirit!" Those were the words used often by the late Coach Ray Bowman to his cross country runners. Almost every year, Howe has had a fine team and, in accordance with this tradition, the 1956 Hornet squad did very well with a 7-2 season, the last coached by Mr. Bowman.

Returning lettermen on this year's team were senior Bill Rumbaugh, and juniors Dick Alexander, Charles Harris, and Russell Lash.

Although they dropped the first match to Crispus Attucks, they were victorious against Washington and Lawrence. North Central was the only other team to top the Brown and Gold this season. With the help of stars Russell Lash, Bill Rumbaugh, and Dick Alexander, Howe was able to defeat all comers. The spikesters put under Warren Central, Muncie, Columbus, Manual, and Broad Ripple.

In the all-city sectionals Howe placed fourth, and in the state meet the team occupied the number eleven position.

Out of 72 runners in the city meet, Howe Harriers placed in the following positions: second,

Managers keep busy

Some very busy fellows around Howe are the student athletic managers who are under the able supervision of Mr. Alvin Geier. They perform countless duties while assisting both coaches and players at practices and regular sports events. They administer first aid for minor injuries and keep the equipment in top condition.

The managers have the opportunity to earn a letter sweater, and they enjoy close association with the team and coach. Another advantage is that the boys can keep in good physical trim.

There are different student athletic managers for each sport. The boys get to choose the teams that they wish to help, and there are usually two boys assigned to each team. Underclassmen have the opportunity to assist reserve and freshmen teams.

Screams and applause rocked the gym rafters where just a moment before silent anticipation had reigned. The candidates for Brown Boy and Golden Girl of our fall dance had just been announced at the 1957 HILLTOPPER assembly. They had previously been nominated by the juniors and seniors. Before the candidate announcement, comical campaign skits were presented to push yearbook purchases. Evidently no pushing was needed for 90% of Howeites bought books.

The Brown and Gold attracting all . . .

Brown Boy and Golden Girl candidates Janice Fudge, Jerry Orlberg, Ronnie Chappell, Darlene Snyder, Ronnie Carrico, Terry Turner, Beverly Van Cleave, and Gene Jeter relax and "take five" on the front hill to discuss the dance.

Upper Left — Senior Ronnie and junior Janice reign together as Brown Boy and Golden Girl for '56.

Lower Left — Remember the long wait outside the gym, and the rush to reserve tables when the doors finally did open?

More than 850 Hornets and guests danced to the music of Vic Knight's band at the HILLTOPPER'S 17th annual Brown and Gold dance on October 6. The enlarged crowd added to our enjoyment, making this the biggest Howe dance ever.

At intermission Vice Principal Kenneth Smartz presented the candidates for Brown Boy and Golden Girl. Then Yolanda Parker, last year's Golden Girl, ended our suspense by announcing Janice Fudge and Ronnie Chappell as the winners.

Tired Howeites started for food and home with wilted corsages and aching feet, but many still held a star from the gym "sky" as their souvenir of this year's big Brown and Gold dance.

"Over here, pal!" Bubbling with hospitality, candidates Tom Hearn and Jerry Mitchell vie in securing Craig Emsweller's vote for governor.

"The writing's on the wall" as Tom Hearn and Phil Malyase post campaign "propaganda" for their Federalist party in the hope of winning more votes.

mock election stressing civic duty . . .

"Cokes in every homeroom!" "Twelve months vacation every year!" Such were the campaign promises heard before polling day of the mock election. Before, party platforms were drawn up, conventions were held, and both the Federalists and the Nationalists boasted of having the best slate. Tensions increased, November 12 dawned, and Tom Hearn, candidate for governor, led the Feds in their third landslide in Howe's voting history.

Besides the fun of campaigning, our mock election impresses upon Howeites the importance of this civic duty and gives them experience of voting procedures before they actually do vote at 21. Government, U.S. and world history students are the only ones to participate in the election, but since government and U.S. are required courses, everyone votes before he graduates. In county and city elections the government classes used paper ballots, while votes were cast for the state on a machine. This year's mock election received the George Washington Medal, a Freedom's Foundation Award, for being an outstanding example of American democracy. Adding to this honor Representative Richard Guthrie, a Howe alumnus, and Senator Martha Burnett took several of Howe's "state elected officials" plus a "Quiz 'em Team" member as their pages at the 1957 Indiana State Legislature.

Jerry Mitchell and Gary VanWey campaign vigorously for top places on the Nationalist ticket.

"The facial expression is very important," says director Frank Tout, as the cast listens attentively. Cast members include Dan Koch, John Gaebler, Dave Konold, James Canada, Linda Maxwell, Jean Kovac, Doris Vogt, Carol Stewart, Deanna Dugan, Carol McPherson, Jenny Johnson, Judy Elkins, Gayle Funk and Dwight Genrich.

..... and Revelers' Play

The Footlight Revelers entertained the East side with their version of "The Man Who Came to Dinner." Dan Koch took the lead as the famous columnist, Sheridan Whiteside; Jean Kovac was the sophisticated actress, Lorraine; Gayle Funk played the secretary, Maggie; and Emerson Houser took the romantic lead as Bert Jefferson, the small town reporter. The Stanley family was portrayed by Doris Vogt, John Gaebler, Judie Elkins, and Jim Canada. King Hunter was a bug-crazy professor, who studied the mating habits of the termite. Stanley Keeler played Banjo; the criminals were portrayed by Ronnie Carrico and Jim Corley; detectives were Steve Leane, Gene Jeter and Dan Maddock.

Maggie (Gayle Funk) looks bored as Lorraine (Jean Kovac) describes her latest fabulously rich British fiance. Sheridan Whiteside (Dan Koch) soaks it all in.

Lorraine, being very dramatic, imagines herself as an Egyptian princess and gets trapped in a mummy case.

Under the direction and supervision of Mr. Frank Tout, the Footlight Revelers not only put on a three-act play "The Man Who Came to Dinner," but also participated in various other activities. In March they rounded up all of the talent from Howe for the Revelers Roundup at the annual P.T.A. Hoedown. Carl Swenson and Judy Henderson were crowned King and Queen of the Roundup.

In the spring the Revelers put on three one-act plays entitled: "Curse You Jack Dalton," "Which Way to Boston?" and "The Boor." The annual formal initiation of Thespian members was held after the presentation of the plays.

Several members of Revelers also belong to the National Thespian Society, Troup 1152. Jean Kovac and Carol McPherson obtained Honor Thespian this year by participating in many plays and Revelers' activities. To be eligible for Thespians, a member of Revelers must participate in the plays put on by the club, by directing or acting.

Thespians for this year are Mike Gill, Dan Koch, Jim Marbach, King Hunter, Judy Collins, Tom Conway, Diana Dugan, Judy Elkins, Janet Fahrbach, Gayle Funk, John Gee, Dwight Genrich, Shirley Frey, Rae Ellen Graham, Mary Lois Holaday, Cynthia Hopping, Emerson Houser, Susan Parker, Nancy Sharp, Stanley Keeler, Doris Vogt, Carol Wilson, Jean Kovac, Carol McPherson, Dave Konold, Earl Hauschild, John Gaebler, Charles Barton, and Melinda Turner. Officers for Revelers this year were: Carol McPherson, president; Jean Kovac, vice-pres., and Doris Vogt, sec.

WINTER sparks Howe with enchantment. Almost overnight brilliant fall hues fade with the sun, the creek becomes ice, and snow blankets the hill. Greetings and snowballs break the crisp morning air as mitten Howeites mount the hill to the hive. Inside, class activities shift into high gear while outside the wind screams and howls around the Tower. The Winter Wonderland Dance and Christmas Community Sing mark just two of our winter traditions; with the promise of the holiday season and coming basketball fever, Howe looks forward to the winter months.

The varsity five, under the direction of Coach Forest Witsman, opened their season against Washington with a 54 to 51 victory. Franklin High, the next foe, was downed by a score of 66 to 61. The first defeat which Howe suffered was to Connersville. The score of that game was a close 57 to 52. The netmen struck back, trouncing Lawrence Central by a score of 77 to 51. Howe was defeated by a "too powerful" Broad Ripple team in a 67 to 73 contest. Shortridge, Howe's next opponent, was surprised when the Howe five stung them with a 83 to 69 defeat in the city tourney. In the second game of the tourney, Howe lost to Attucks by a score of 63 to 51. After the tourney, Howe dropped another game to Southport by a score of 77 to 61.

Reigning over the '57 basketball season as queen was Pat Matthews. The crowning ceremony took place during the half of the Garfield game. She received her jewelled crown from Ronnie Heath. Tom Siersdale presented her with a gold locket which she proudly wears as a fond remembrance of the event. Included in her court were seniors, Rita Bolden and J. Ellen Allison; junior, Mary Anne Stratton; sophomores, Joyce Ford and Carolyn Knecht; and freshmen, Vicki Anderson and Barbara Berry.

Howe then edged out Columbus by a one point margin. The Hornets proceeded to whip Shortridge again, but by a somewhat slimmer score, 65 to 54. After a loss to Shelbyville, Howe met Terre Haute Garfield and lost a thriller by two points.

Howe next faced Tech. The Hornets fought hard but were defeated. In the next game, the netmen defeated the team which was one of the "final four" in the state tourney, Crispus Attucks, by a score of 64 to 52.

In the next game the Hornets traveled to Ben Davis where they were turned back by a score of 64 to 46. The basketballers rolled over Cathedral, and New Albany, which had proved to be very tough in the previous season, fell at the Hornets' feet as Howe breezed to a 93 to 57 victory. Manual was the next victim of the Brown and Gold.

Howe lost to Warren Central by 10 points, but Howe defeated Lebanon handily. Howe lost again to Warren by a smaller score, 58 to 64 in the first game of the sectionals.

At the basketball banquet, the Best Mental Attitude award was presented to Bob Bransford, Jerry Cermack was named Most Valuable Player, and Ronnie Chappell was elected captain.

GAA head crowns king

Offering Howe girls the opportunity to participate in an organized sports program is the Girls' Athletic Association. Miss Johanne Guenter is the new sponsor of this year's group.

The girls started the year by holding a get-acquainted picnic on the Howe campus.

Autumn sports enjoyed by GAA members are speedball, and bowling. When the weather turns colder, the girls don their swimming suits and head for the Y.W.C.A. During the winter they also play basketball, volleyball, and learn the techniques of working on the apparatus. The girls complete their sports year with track and field events and softball.

At the spring banquet, they are given awards according to the number of points collected from participation in GAA events and tests offered by the state GAA.

The girls, in cooperation with the Lettermen's Club, sponsor the Winter Wonderland Dance

From the beginning, Howe's curriculum has been adapted to student needs. Math and English departments, being first to change their regular curriculum, offered to students showing special interest and abilities "X" classes in which they might increase their knowledge of these fields. The biology department not only added an "X" class, but also started a third semester of biology for those interested in advanced study. Now, the social studies department offers an "X" class in economics.

Because interest as well as need demanded it, Latin and Greek Derivatives was added to the elective list in September; most electives depend upon student interest. The whirring lathes, sticks of type, and saws of our elective shops seem to hold no terrors for boys in industrial arts.

"Fungus among us!" remark Linda Johnson and Hugh Osborne as they check the bacteria cultures for Biology.

Class list develops to

Jack Burgan and Cynthia Smithson agree two heads are better than one in solving the Latin and Greek Derivatives problem posed by Marcia Graves.

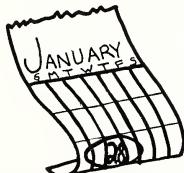

The presses rumble as Donald Marshall and Roger Wightman print one of Howe's many business forms.

The rise and fall of hemlines keeps Doris Vogt busy as she carefully measures a dress hem in clothing class.

meet student needs

These shops introduce metal work, printing, etc. which may lead boys into related jobs or hobbies.

"The way to a man's heart is not only through his stomach," for Home Management girls learn a pleasant home and balanced budget are just as effective as broiled steak or a pretty dress.

Drag races or fudge are common topics in speech class. Three minute speeches seem like slow death to Howeites at first, but they soon come easier as poise and good diction are developed.

Perhaps the future will bring still more electives to Howe as student interest changes.

"Now hear this!" Donn Richardson, Jim Ridenour, and Tom Conway listen attentively to Karen Sach record her voice in speech class to playback later for criticism.

New girls' club begins work

One of the newest and busiest organizations this year is the Tri Hi-Y Club for senior girls. Next year it is hoped that not only seniors will be members but also underclassmen.

Some of the highlights of the year for this new club were joint meetings with the Senior

Hi-Y boys, a panel discussion with four senior boys on "Likes And Dislikes Of Senior Boys", movies about other clubs' activities, a statewide convention of all Hi-Y clubs at Muncie, and a campaign to clothe a needy family.

The most important moment of the year, though, was a model United Nations that is set up to show how the UN really operates. Several girls were sent as delegates and others were sent to work with the Secretariat.

One of the biggest projects of the club is the preparation of a new constitution. The constitution covers such things as the purpose of the Tri Hi-Y, attendance, order of business, and regularity of meetings. One of the points that will be stressed is that there are no religious restrictions for membership.

Miss Jean Hoilman is the sponsor.

Nice weather makes a good atmosphere for a discussion of the constitution and insignia by the officers, Wally Meredith, Janet Fahrbach, Carol Story, and Karen Wogen.

Hoping the wonderful weather lasts for the May Pageant, officers of Vihota, Judy Collins, Pat Matthews, Gloria Fleenor, and Marcia Clark, enjoy the warm, sunny day.

Turning the calendar's pages we find the junior girls attending the Vihota Club which meets every other Tuesday. Their sponsor, Mrs. Ruth Reed, finds enjoyment from the initiation ceremony where the girls form a circle to cut the crepe paper knots as a symbol of fellowship and receive their attractive two-tone violet ribbons.

Among their many activities the girls meet with other clubs for demonstrations on grooming, fashions, hair-styling, and many others that are of interest to teenage girls. The panel discussion on dating with the Senior Hi-Y club rates high with the girls.

Other events which bring the club members together are the annual all-girls' Christmas, Halloween and Valentine parties. The girls also find time to have fun matching their skills in the Stunt Day program.

With spring, arrive thoughts of the May Pageant. At this time Vihota members nominate candidates for the Violet Queen. The queen and her court, all members of Vihota, will reign over Violet Hill for the coming year.

Picking songs for entertainment at the all-girl's Christmas party, are La Nina officers, Diane Dobbs, Darlene Spreen, Sandy Elliott, Julie Pratt, and Nancy Conner.

Speakers and parties

During your sophomore year at Howe, you get to know your classmates better and you really begin to get into the swing of things. The panel discussions after school at La Nina Club and the special talks given by teachers and visitors add to the interest displayed by the club members. One of the interesting discussions was given by Mr. Robert Turner about his travels in Cuba.

To start the school year off on the right foot, La Nina had a ribbon ceremony in which the officers pinned ribbons of rose and pink, the club colors, on the new members. This was only the beginning of what was to be an eventful year.

Two of the purposes of La Nina are to help the girls plan programs of interest and to teach them to plan parties on a large scale. The girls put their knowledge to work when they helped plan the Halloween and Christmas parties that all the girls' clubs attended.

Another important purpose is to promote and increase friendship among the girls while helping them to learn parliamentary procedures.

Miss Jerry Motley is their sponsor.

For many freshman girls the year passed slowly, but for the members of Selofra, it passed quickly. The club offered a large variety of speakers, parties, and other activities for these busy newcomers. There were panel discussions with other clubs, a chat with senior girls on "Happy Life At Howe", and participation in the all-girls' Christmas party.

One of the most profitable meetings of the year was a presentation of make-up and skin-care problems by Mrs. Ruth Elder, English-Senior office secretary.

The initiation is a moment the girls always remember. The newly elected president gives the pledge and the girls repeat the words after her. Then when they are officially in the club they are allowed to wear their ribbons.

The club sponsor, Miss Ellen O'Drain, participates in all of the activities with the freshman girls. She helps the girls plan the parties, gives advice to the girls, and invites guest speakers to their meetings. For any freshman girl, Selofra is the source of social activity and long-lasting friendships.

Popular octets sing their blues away.

Seven may be lucky for some, but the number eight has certainly proved its luck for two of the most popular musical groups at Howe, the Boys' and Girls' Octets. These groups are in constant demand for school and community functions.

During the past year the Boys' Octet, under the direction of Mr. Robert Latherow, has performed at the Irvington Kiwanis Club Variety Show, Open House, P.T.A. meetings, and various church services and meetings. They sang for two Christmas television programs, "Young America Sings" radio show, the PRR and the Spring Vocal Festival.

Mr. Frank Watkins directs the Girls' Octet which has sung for the Future Teachers of America, Thanksgiving programs of the Downtown and Irvington Kiwanis Clubs, Eagle Scout Dinner and the American Guild of Organists.

Also on the girls' busy schedule were programs for WISH-TV, The American Institute of Banking, Equitable Life Assurance, the Red Cross, the Indiana Federation of Clubs, P.T.A. meetings, and appearances in the PRR and Spring Vocal Festival.

For their many outside performances, the boys don their brown and white sport coats with brown and gold insignia on the pockets. The girls appear for their numerous performances attired in suits, party dresses, or formals, whichever the occasion demands. Both octets enjoy working out specialty numbers for which they create special and often amusing outfits.

Choir begins day with a song

Each morning, during the first period, if you walk by the choral room on the third floor, you are very likely to hear anything from "Hallelujah from the Mount of Olives" to the latest popular tunes. Preparing for the numerous activities in which they participate, the Howe High School Choir, consisting of students selected from the Choralaires and boys' glee clubs, practice daily in order to better its already outstanding performances.

During the past school year the choir has sung for Open House, on Monument Circle at Christmas time, the May Music Festival, for the American Guild of Organists, at Vespers, and for Commencement.

In addition to directing the choir, director Frank Watkins is a very busy man, serving as head of the Music Department, director of the Girls' Octet, girls' glee club, and director of the choir of St. John's Evangelical and Reformed Church.

Select music groups

Presenting a bit of musical enjoyment here and there around Howe and Indianapolis, are 16 melodious lads and lasses known as the Madrigal Singers. The select group sings the choral works popular in the 15th and 16th centuries. They sing around a candlelighted table, attempting to recapture the original atmosphere of the Madrigal period. Mr. Robert Latherow directs the Madrigal singers who perform at Open House, The Christmas program, May Music Festival, and often sing at city churches for special events.

DANCE BAND

BACK ROW—Gilfoy, Templemeyer, Klein, Banta,

The Choralaires, a select group of girls chosen from the girls' glee clubs, frequently add their talents to many musical programs. This year they sang with the Jordan College Choir at Christmas time, at St. John's Evangelical and Reformed Church during Lent, and on the radio program, "Young America Sings." The Choralaires are under the direction of Mr. Frank Watkins.

Returning to Howe's musical family this year after an absence of two years due to lack of necessary instruments, is the Howe-Dance Band. The organization, re-formed this year from 13 musically inclined young men, is under the direction of Mr. Louis McEnderfer. The band rehearses after school to keep in shape for its many performances which this year included playing for the PRR, the Howe Hoedown and the Student Council Assembly.

"Pop" Watkins and accompanist Linda Mueller put the choir through their paces at a typical early morning rehearsal.

Talented Instrumentalists

Howe's fine orchestra now boasts a membership of forty-seven. The orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Constantine Poulimas, has many members taking part in special events in addition to their regular schedule.

Several members played in the All-State Orchestra for the Indiana State Teachers Association's annual convention, and also hold membership in the newly-formed All-City Orchestra.

Members of the Howe Orchestra competed in the regionals and finals of the State Solo and Ensemble Contests. Ensembles from the orchestra have played at grade school assemblies, the Hobby Show, and the Howe Hoedown Style Show. The full orchestra plays for Open House, the Band and Orchestra Contest, and the Band and Orchestra Concert for the Howe student body.

Officers for the orchestra for the past year included: King Hunter, president; Phyllis Paternoster, vice president; Emily Hale, secretary; and Gloria Ealy, librarian.

The orchestra is making remarkable progress despite the inconvenience of having many of its members unable to meet regularly. The strings meet every day during the second period, but all woodwind and brass players come in whenever they can. Complete rehearsals are held each Wednesday after school for everyone.

Attired in attractive uniforms of brown suits for boys and brown skirts and gold blouses for girls, the orchestra played for Vespers, the senior play, and the Revelers' play.

Howe is very proud of its fine band, and has a right to be. The band holds honors in the Class A Band and Orchestra contests, and this year received five first division awards in both solo and ensemble divisions of state and district contests. Of the 50% of our band who entered the district contest, 33% went on to state competition.

In the past year, the Howe band has been one of the busiest organizations in school. They are the first to begin work in the fall, with the exception of the football team, beginning practice even before school starts. They are also one of the last to stop in the spring, their final performance being at commencement.

The band performed at the Football Jamboree, at all home football and basketball games, the Irvington Halloween parade, Open House, the Christmas program, Memorial Day services, the Clean-up and other downtown parades, and the special band and orchestra assembly.

Fourteen talented band members were chosen to participate in the all-city symphonic band. This year the band wore new white belts and spats, a gift of the P.T.A., with their brown and gold uniforms.

The band receives additional help on their numbers each Thursday when brass and clarinet players from the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra sit in on rehearsals.

"Special" agents tackle business operations

An important role in Howe activities is played by the Student Business Managers. They manage almost all extra-curricular activities, from plays to athletic season tickets. As members of the business staff, the students publicize productions, sell and take tickets, and of course—"add up the take." This year's head business managers are Larry Turner and Phil Malvase. Head of house management is John Wimmer. The staff is under the supervision of Mr. Paul Klinge.

Responsible for the business and advertising operations of the HOWE TOWER is the TOWER Business Staff. The members of the staff write and sell the ads which appear in the paper. Heading the staff this year is Barbara Voss, with Mr. Frank Tout as supervisor.

The TOWER'S News Bureau staff members serve as correspondents to city and Eastside newspapers, and inform them of activities taking place at Howe. The members send news to the papers each week as a routine part of their work, and occasionally have special assignments. Carol Storm has her own column in the Eastern Sun, Donna Hoff writes for the Indianapolis News, and Carol Story contributes to the Indianapolis Times. Sherry Hines writes for the Indianapolis Herald, and Maria Sirmán writes features for the Teen Star. Julia Freeman, an alternate reporter, writes occasionally for the Teen Star.

(Standing) Marcia Clark, Joan Miller, and Marcia Graves. (Seated) Janet Szatkowski and the Hi-Y Sweetheart, Nancy Trisler.

Senior Hi-Y and Beta Hi-Y offered many activities for their club members. Among them were movies, guest speakers, the Muscular Dystrophy Fund Drive, and participation in the model UN with all other Hi-Y clubs in the county. Some of the money-making projects for the Hi-Y's were sponsoring dances after basketball games, and selling cokes at school affairs.

The highlight of the school year for the Hi-Y's is their Sweetheart Dance. Senior Hi-Y nominates candidates for the Sweetheart, but anyone attending the dance is eligible to vote. The attire for this evening of fun was party dresses and suits. The Hi-Y Sweetheart this year was Nancy Trisler. Her court included Marcia Clark, Joan Miller, Marcia Graves, and Janet Szatkowski.

Mr. Virgil Heniser sponsors Senior Hi-Y and Mr. Justin Rehm sponsors Beta Hi-Y.

SPRING officially arrives at Howe when a kite appears in our front elm tree. From then on the epidemic of spring fever spreads rapidly throughout Howe. Convertible tops come down, art students emerge from the hive to sketch campus life, and colorful cottons replace winter woolens. With the crack of baseball bats opening the season, Howe's calendar turns to spring.

TENNIS TEAM

Tom Lawson quickly returns the tennis ball for a victory for Howe.

Howe's tennis team, under the coaching of Mr. Lyman Combs did well for themselves in their second year of competition. Their record this year was much improved over the 1955 record of 3 wins and 6 losses. In the first match of the regular season Howe handed Ben Davis a 6 to 2 defeat. Howe then proceeded to win over Crispus Attucks by a 5 to 2 score. A seasoned Broad Ripple squad delivered Howe their first loss of the season.

The raquetmen were victorious in their next five contests, defeating Attucks, Southport, Ben Davis, and Seccina twice. In the final match of the season, Tech marred the Hornets' fine record by defeating them 6 to 1. Matches with Park School, Shortridge, and Cathedral were rained out.

Under the leadership of Captain Bill Ulmer, Howe placed fourth in the city tourney held at the Riverside courts. From the 1956 season, all but Bill Ulmer will return to try to uphold the team's record. Among the returning lettermen are Tom Lawson, Steve Leane, Tom Hearn, and Phil Nonweiler.

Golfers break even

GOLF TEAM

Coach Lemley, Stevens, Thompson, Lanham, Homeier, Evans, Wimmer.

Howe's golf team, under the coaching of Mr. Fred Lemley, had a fair season. There were 20 boys who started the season, but only 11 teemen finished. Their scores ranged from the fair "90's" down to the excellent "70's". Bill Stevens and Lee Evans led the way by scoring in the 70's. Bob Lanham and Dave Homeier also added spirit and power to the team.

The many underclassmen from this team should form a good nucleus for the 1957 golf team. Returning lettermen will be Dave Peters, Bill Stevens and Bob Thompson.

Posting a season record of 5 wins against 4 losses, the linksmen participated in four tournaments in addition to their regular schedule.

Tom Means is on the alert after a called strike.

Our varsity diamond men completed the '56 season with flying colors. In the opening game, Howe delivered to Greenfield a startling 17 to 2 loss. The Hornets proved just as successful in their next game, defeating Southport 8 to 1. Howe attributed its first loss, 0 to 5, to a powerful Broad Ripple team.

With little difficulty, Howe trounced their next 3 opponents, Warren Central, Zionsville, and Ben Davis. Cathedral then scored a victory, 4 to 3, over the strong Howe team. Washington handed them a loss, 15 to 7, but the Hornets chalked up their 7th win by taking the following game from the Continentals. This game was greatly improved over the previous Washington contest.

In the next game, the squad lost a close one to Seccina, then came back with a 2 to 1 victory over Manual. The final game of the season was dropped to Shortridge by a score of 6 to 4.

Dave Peters added strength to the team and victories to the record as one of Howe's best pitchers. Kent Stewart's terrific batting average also contributed to the Hornet's excellent season.

Ron Heath stretches to receive the ball for an out.

The reserve team had a terrific season with only one loss out of seven games. They won over Ripple, Ben Davis, Manual, Cathedral, and Washington twice. They lost to Tech by a 3-5 score. This team is coached by Mr. Forest Witsman.

The freshman team under the coaching of Mr. Richardson won 3 games, from Scecina twice, and Ripple. They lost two games to Ripple and Southport; and tied the second game with Southport.

Royalty reigns at Birthday Festival . . .

In front, Gale Funk adjusts the crown carried by Ann Patterson, granddaughter of Mr. E. A. Patterson, chairman of the Industrial Arts Department, while other court members Wally Meredith, Queen Gwen Barnett, Terry

Turner, Judy Mosby, Irene Spitzer, and Carol Wilson await the trumpet signal which will begin the queen's parade from the bridge to the top of Violet Hill.

After being crowned, Queen Gwen accepts the student body's loyalty pledge to Howe as expressed by Philosopher Mike Gill and Kent Stewart, student council president for '55-'56.

Gwen Barnett, our Violet Queen chosen from the Vihota club, represented the true spirit of Violet Hill at our annual May Pageant when we celebrated Howe's nineteenth birthday. Philosopher Mike Gill, greeting the queen at the first of the program, reviewed Howe's achievements during the last year. Since then thirteen teachers have joined our faculty and Howe has moved from sixth to fourth place in city high school enrollment, marking the largest gain of any school.

Following the philosopher's report, colorful May dances preceded the Dance of the Violets. The choir ended the pageant, singing, as the queen and her court left Violet Hill.

. . . while Gilpin reigns at Military Ball

Wilson, Szatkowski, Miller, Carter. FIRST ROW—Whitaker, Mueller.

Janet Gilpin was crowned Queen of the Annual Military Ball held on March 16. Other candidates were Ann Schumaker, Phyllis Money, Lynne Archer, and Julie Pratt. With help from M/Sgt. Sherman Mossbarger, the R.O.T.C. cadets turned the gym into a lovely dance hall. A canopy of red, white, and blue, crepe paper draped from the ceiling, with a crystal ball in the center throwing specks of colored lights on the floor. Cadets and their dates passed through a receiving line of officers and visiting dignitaries.

The girls seem to have moved in where the R.O.T.C. is concerned. Every Tuesday morning before 8:00, the girls' drill team gathers in Room 40 to practice on the different drills. Nan Whitaker and Linda Mueller are the drill sergeants and M/Sgt. Mossbarger and Miss Dorotha Kirk are the sponsors. The team marches for special performances, at basketball games, and even some football games. These quick stepping little ladies in their short brown skirts and high white boots, do columns, flanks, and even the Queen Ann salute. Miss Kirk is also training another girls' drill team composed mostly of sophomores and freshmen.

Inspecting the cadets and R.O.T.C. classes every Friday can be fun for the boys when these gals take over. R.O.T.C. sponsors are Honorary Captain Janet Gilpin, Honorary Captain Ann Schumaker, Honorary Lieutenant Julie Pratt, Honorary Major Lynne Archer, and Honorary Lieutenant Colonel Phyllis Money.

A beautiful spring day in May of '56 was chosen for the first Federal Inspection of the Howe Reserve Officers Training Corps (R.O.T.C.). The Howe band under the leadership of drum major Dave Lichtenauer, led the units onto the field. Each unit was headed by a cadet officer and a girl sponsor. All cadets passed in review before visiting dignitaries and guests. Promotions and awards were made to the cadets by M/Sgt. Sherman Mossbarger and various other officials. Retired officer Mr. Barton Grabow presented Cadet Lieutenant Colonel John Ridge with the Indianapolis News Award for an outstanding cadet officer. (Left.)

Honorary Lieutenant Phyllis Money and Battalion Lieutenant Colonel John Ridge headed the R.O.T.C. this year as the cadet officers. Sfc. Alvin Jenkins assisted Sergeant Mossbarger in training the R.O.T.C. cadets.

R.O.T.C. Learns

During the first Federal Inspection, Principal C. M. Sharp had the honor of presenting the Howe R.O.T.C. with its first Honor School Award. The award was placed on a banner and then put on the R.O.T.C. flagstaff. Standing behind the color guard are the cadets, who received special awards for outstanding conduct, and medals for special accomplishments.

Military Life

Handling guns can be pretty tricky business, but these cadets know how it's done. The boys' drill team practices gun handling, flanks, columns, and salutes which must all be done with perfect timing; not a single cadet can be out of step. Drill team cadets marched at parades, basketball games, and the Federal Inspection.

Rifle team members practice and practice, until their accuracy is perfected. In 1956 the rifle team shot first in the city. Then they went on to place 25th in the Fifth-Army Interscholastic Match, composed of thirteen states.

The R.O.T.C. Rifle Team was composed of sharp shooters Jerry Dennis, Mack Mowbray, Tom Lawson, Jim Coussy, and Dick Compton. The team is pictured in the three different shooting positions with the practice range behind them.

"Surveyor" Tom Siersdale solves a trig problem while Mr. Alvin Geier explains the use of the transit to John Ridge and Hugh Osborne.

Classes Have Purpose

"Figures and facts" constitute a large part of our modern world today; Howe life also reflects this trend, for our math and history departments cover both subjects well. Trigonometry whizzes, having "figured" their way to the top of the math heap, have completed Algebra I-II, Plane Geometry I-II, Algebra III-IV, and maybe even Solid Geometry. Putting these figures to use some Howeites keep track of gas expenses through recording methods learned in Book-keeping.

Both past and present facts interest history students at Howe. Junior Town Meeting and Quiz'em on the Air, two radio programs put on by high school students, deal with current historical and international facts; while regular social studies classes re-live American and world history.

"Mens sana in corpore sano." Health students are figure-minded too; they practise hygienic living for a "Sound mind (and) sound body."

"Add those numbers!" Gwen Barnett and Tom Hearn practice balancing the books in bookkeeping class.

"Go west, young man!" Mrs. Winslow points out the Oregon Trail for Carl Swenson in U. S. History I.

-- Now and Later

Through its curriculum Howe presents basic principles of life as well as fundamental knowledge. Our motto is "constants with variables", so English, math, history, science, and language will always be part of the curriculum; and "variables" of elective and prevocational courses depend upon need and interest. Thus Howe teaches us to make the most of our lives and grow to the best of our abilities.

"The heart is the toughest muscle," report Geraldine Bellows and Pat Baldwin in Health class.

to our homes, churches, and nation; gold, symbolizing our respect for Howe; and white, symbolizing purity of mind and body.

Attaining the coveted front chairs in assemblies and meeting all together at homeroom period in the cafeteria were two more visible signs that we had "grown up" as Howeites.

With the approach of June 12 it was hard to realize that we would be marching down the steps of Howe for the last time. It didn't seem possible that four years could have passed so swiftly. The memories of dances, exciting games, PRR, mock elections, hectic sectionals, classes with long assignments, and those long study periods will always stand out. And we will always remember the many good friends we have made at Howe.

Cast and crew members of the senior play rest for a moment during dress rehearsal, while they discuss last minute changes with Mr. Frank Tout, the director.

Seniors get a taste

"George Washington Slept Here", a three act comedy by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman, was chosen for the senior class play. The play was directed by Mr. Frank Tout.

In the play, Newton Fuller is persuaded to buy one of those Revolutionary War period houses that are so common in the eastern states. The house is badly in need of repair, and it doesn't even have plumbing. When Mrs. Fuller sees the house that is to become her home, she is not at all impressed. Her daughter, Madge, sees many possibilities for the house, however.

After many months of struggling with local labor, the house finally begins to look livable. Just when Mrs. Fuller is becoming attached to the house, the family almost loses it. Everything works out for the best, though, and all ends well.

TOP PICTURE—Mrs. Fuller (Terry Turner) and Madge (Barbara Voss) discuss the problems of country living with Rena Leslie (Sharon Edwards), a summer theater actress.

BOTTOM PICTURE—The Fuller's neighbor, Mrs. Douglas (J. Ellen Allison), stops by to welcome them and to offer advice.

Mr. and Mrs. Fuller (Mike Gill and Terry Turner) welcome Madge's weekend guests (Dave Koch, Cynthia Smithson, Gayle Funk, and Dan Maddock) who suddenly descend on the house. The guests are preceded by a hard-to-please rich relative, Uncle Stanley (Dan Koch).

All through the year of our school session, assemblies, "quiet" study halls, classes, and extra-curricular clubs are regular Howe activities. Lunch in the cafeteria, jokes with fellow classmates and teachers, and jammed lockers happen every day. Fall, winter, and spring arrive at Howe bringing their seasonal variations, but from September to June each Howeite remembers best his daily life all through the year.

Student Achievement Recognized

Sherry Hines and Dave Koch the American Legion Good Citizenship Award winners talk over welcoming speeches they are preparing to give to the incoming freshmen that afternoon.

Sherry Hines and Dave Koch received the American Legion Good Citizenship Awards for 1956. Each year since 1940 the Irvington Legion post has presented this award to an outstanding junior boy and girl on the basis of citizenship, scholarship, and leadership. Sherry was also selected by the senior class and faculty to represent Howe at the United Nations last fall. Representatives from all the city high schools are chosen to visit the UN every year. After returning, Sherry told the student body of her experiences on a special P.A. homeroom broadcast.

Carol Wilson was selected by the senior class and faculty to receive the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award. The Irvington chapter of the D.A.R. has given this award on the basis of scholarship, citizenship, and leadership annually to an outstanding senior girl since 1948. Carol also received the Altrusa Merit Award for 1956.

Carol Wilson is the winner of the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award. She also received the Altrusa Merit Award.

Unusual and Usual Shape Our Lives

All of the cars but one were evacuated from the pupil parking lot when the water began to overflow the area last May.

(Below) A more familiar scene is Laughner's, where you can always find a crowd of Howetons after school, after club meetings, and on dates.

Few Howe students will ever forget the flood which hit Howe last May. During the second period an urgent call was issued for all students who drove to move their cars from the parking lot because Pleasant Run Creek was rapidly overflowing its banks. Minutes after the last car was "evacuated," the water poured into the lot. There was over a foot of water on the football field, in front of the school.

All events of Howe students are a long way from being that exciting, but still they are a part of our lives we don't want to forget. The fun in the halls before school begins, the welcome break for lunch and gossip, "buzzing" around the drive-in, the careful attention given to announcements in senior homeroom, and the pictures of "Elvis" on the locker door, all add to the lives of Howe students.

Many busy Howeites dash to Room 240 when the HILLTOPPER staff starts to buzz. Marcia Clark and Janice Scott get assistance from Mary Helen Boren in checking underclassmen pictures for the album section.

Knowing the alphabet is a must for Nancy Kendall, Jane Affleck, and Carol Wilson, as they slave over the student index which includes the names of all Howeites and the pages on which their pictures appear in the yearbook.

HILLTOPPER presents over all

Between dances, an assembly, and sales campaigns, the HILLTOPPER staff somehow finds time to put out the yearbook. This year's staff took over in April of '56 by sponsoring the annual Turn-About-Twirl. Soon after, sports editors started writing copy and taking pictures of the track and baseball teams. During the summer Steve Leane, Carol McPherson, Joanne Stevens, Nan Whitaker, Shirley Frey, and Sally Turpen attended the High School Journalism Institute at Indiana University. As a result of the combined efforts of editors Steve and Carol, the HILLTOPPER placed second in its division.

In October, the sales campaign started with an assembly and the Brown and Gold dance. Staff members labored for hours daubing stars with white paint and glitter, and hanging them from the ceiling of the gym. Mr. Earl Loudermilk and Mr. Robert Stalcup came to take pictures during November, December, and January. From January to April 6, the staff slaved over copy, heads and idents, trying to meet the deadline. Finally in April the book went to press and the staff rested 'til time for proofreading.

To celebrate the end of another year of publications, the HILLTOPPER joined the TOWER staff in May for the annual Publications Party. The 1958 staffs were introduced and the old staffs were presented with pins and certificates for their publications service.

Work can be fun; especially when Steve Leane and Mrs. Ellen Jenkins get help from Mr. Earl Loudermilk in planning pictures for the yearbook.

calendar . . .

We of the 1957 HILLTOPPER Staff want to express our sincere thanks to Mr. Earl C. Loudermilk and Mr. Robert Stalcup, photographers; Mr. Richard Brier, the Indianapolis Engraving Company; Mr. Robert G. Moorhead, Central Publishing Company, and Mr. Jack Bundy, S. K.

Planning for dances, dreaming up an assembly, or writing copy, these gals are always on the go. Joanne Stevens, Shirley Frey, Sally Turpen, Carol McPherson, and Nan Whitaker take time out from work to hear Phyllis Money tell a new joke.

Smith Company. Without their help, we could never have met our many deadlines. For taking time to do extra typing, we would like to thank Doris Vogt, Gerry Schultz, Joanne Hinsch, Carol Biles, Tricia Bowman, Nancy Hoffman, Barbara Moulden, and Jerri Baker.

Thinking up new layouts and column heads for the TOWER can be fun when page editors Cynthia Smithson, Steve Wise, and Marcia Graves put their heads together.

Room 240 is by no means the quietest room at Howe. Typewriters are stilled only by an occasional outburst of laughter or a few choice words when the machine happens to get stuck. Such are common happenings every afternoon when members of the TOWER staff are hard at work on layouts, copy, proofreading, or beat cards. These four items form the base upon which the HOWE TOWER is written. Layouts are planned two weeks before deadline by the page editors. Assignments are then made to the reporters, and the footwork begins. After checking by the copyreaders, all stories go to the printers. Proofs are sent back to the editors to be checked for accuracy and then returned for the final printing. The following Friday the paper comes out and for once all 1,741 Howeites are quietly engrossed in reading the latest HOWE TOWER.

Student Council boosts

Howe's Student Council is the center of many activities throughout the school year. The Council gets off to a good start each fall with the annual Student Council Assembly, where the officers are installed and Howe and its activities are introduced to the new freshmen. The Council members added to the beauty of Howe this year by decorating Christmas trees in rooms 124, 125, and the cafeteria. Throughout the year the Council sponsors the elections of queens for sports events. Enjoyment for all is present when talented Howeites are brought together in the annual Student Council Talent Show.

The Council, which consists of home room representatives, class representatives, and City Student Council delegates, meets every other week with the faculty sponsors, Mrs. Mildred Loew, Mr. Tom Stirling, Mr. Charles DeBow, and Mr. Charles Ruschaupt.

Meeting on alternate weeks is the cabinet, composed of the officers, class representatives and delegates.

Nancy Hoffman, Gayle Funk, and Pat Smith represent Howe in the Intra-City Student Council which has been in existence since 1951. The purpose of the organization is to promote better relations between the Indianapolis high schools. The Intra-City Council members learn new ideas and discuss problems of the various high schools. For the past two years, Howe has had the honor of having the winning good sportsmanship slogan selected by the Council to hang in Butler Field House during the Sectionals.

Howe activities

The City Council has set up a Code of Ethics which it believes each student should follow to be a good citizen. A committee of our own Student Council has set up a Code of Ethics for the students of Howe to follow. The students received copies of the Howe Code on Howe student identification cards.

Programs vary for

This was a busy year for the Spanish Club, and high on their list of programs was a visit from a former Howe student who told of his experiences in South America. Also, a guest from Cuba spoke to the members of the club. Besides preparing a display for the Open House in November and planning Christmas party, the Spanish Club listened to tape recordings received from other students in Uruguay.

Members of the Latin Club learn how Latin can be used in everyday life, and in advertising as well as in many other professions.

Furthering their study of mythology, they chose to honor the gods and goddesses at their annual Roman Banquet. Roman heroes were invited to tell about their lives and about Rome. The food eaten and the clothing worn were like that of the Romans many years ago.

Linguists and speakers

The Radio Club had a variety of activities to keep them occupied. Among them were presenting short news summaries over the school's public address system every other week, many guest speakers, and field trips to radio stations to observe the way they operate.

The Radio Club also participates in the WFBM Platter Chatter Show. They select the records that will be played and also answer requests.

Mr. Tully Shaw is their sponsor.

The Debate team which meets on Fridays, is newly organized this year by their sponsor, Mrs. Janice Voyles.

The purpose of this club is to increase skills in logical thinking and speaking. It also gives the members opportunities to compete with other debate teams of the state.

Howe's debate team members, Knox Abernethy, Jim Hunter, Steve Carter, and Gordon

Dixon have participated in debate contests since the start of the school year.

The team has entered the city-county, at Washington High School, and district contests debating on the 1956-57 national issue, "Resolved: The Federal Government should sustain the price of agricultural commodities at not less than 90% parity." The team also debates many other important issues.

Junior Red Cross members and sponsor, Mrs. Betty Johnson, learn the real meaning of their motto "We serve", by serving children, teachers, classmates, neighbors, and themselves.

The annual enrollment membership drive is conducted in November. Classes and other clubs cooperate with the Junior Red Cross in their many activities. Home Economics Club, art, woodshop, and music departments have all contributed their time and services.

Larry Oswalt, president of the Marion County Junior Red Cross High School Board, attended the 1956 International Junior Red Cross Training center in Chiemsee, Germany. He is the first delegate to be sent to an overseas training center by the Indianapolis chapter.

Students Contribute Services

Members of the Audio-Visual Club are kept busy each day serving Howe by running the nine sound motion picture projectors. Each member volunteers one study period a day to present Howe with its wide selection of films for every subject. During the school year, they show over a thousand films and each film is shown on the average of five times daily.

Room 20 is the special projection room where students come to see the movies. There are also portable projectors which enable the students to see the movie right in their class rooms.

The members of the Audio-Visual Club, who attend meetings every second and fourth Monday of each month, learn how to splice a film and how to care for the films in other ways. They also learn how to set up the films on the two different types of movie projectors used at Howe.

Mr. William Smith is sponsor.

Howe girls who have taken at least one semester of Home Economics are eligible to attend the Home Economics Club on the first and third Tuesdays of each month.

Miss Lois Coy, their sponsor, is sure that the girls will be interested. Programs have included complete demonstrations on the use of cosmetics, proper ways to wrap gift packages, selection and care of quality fabrics, making of corsages, and the other topics that are of interest to the girls. Club members agree that the demonstrations, given at almost every meeting, are interesting and helpful. Cake decorating proves to be fun when you are watching a professional decorate a wedding cake. Afterwards, the girls try their luck at frosting artistry and even get a sample of the cake.

As Helen Petzl demonstrates a good table setting, the other officers, Janet Bender, Carolyn Conner, Phyllis Benjamin, and Laura Swadner pick up several good points.

Members Work Toward New Horizons

The club starts each semester with a welcome party to introduce the officers and sponsor to the new members. At a later date, they have an installation and initiation ceremony, where the officers present the creed and purpose of the club to the new members. The girls then receive ribbons of the club's colors, red and white, which are symbolic of youth, home life and success. The red rose is the club flower.

The club's motto, "Toward new horizons", expresses the purpose of the organization: "to live better today in order that we may live better tomorrow." A major project for the Home Economics Club is to improve one's self socially, educationally, and to help others.

The members call themselves the Future Homemakers of America, and are allied with the national organization of that name.

Clubs organized to start you thinking

Math classes cannot supply all the answers to math problems presented in books so the Math Club was organized with the purpose of offering the members supplementary materials and ideas that will enrich the members' curriculum.

Lectures were given by representatives from Indiana University and Nuclear Measurements, and members also presented short topics. Mr. Robert Carr is the sponsor of the Math Club.

Purposes of the Science Club are to stimulate and further vocational interest in science, and give the student who is interested in the different phases of science, a better chance to obtain knowledge of his special interest.

Miss Jerry Motley, who is the sponsor of the club also sponsors "Atom Dust", published by the Science Club. This paper contains reports made by different science students on the results of their projects. Miss Motley also invites many guest speakers to talk to the club members about their special interest in science.

"Check Mate!" is a favorite phrase often heard at the meetings of the Chess Club. No wonder, it means the player has won. At the end of each semester, the members of the club have a tournament to see which member is the best player. Although the members are now all boys, girls are encouraged to come to the meetings and learn to play the game. In the future, the club is planning to have tournaments with other high school chess clubs in the city. Mr. Harold Stahly, the club sponsor, has learned, along with the members, many fine points of the game.

Faculty Offers Guidance and Friendship

Just nineteen years ago when Howe first opened its doors to students, the man who guided Howeites along the road to success was Principal Charles McKay Sharp.

At the beginning, Howe had only 18 teachers and 450 students. With the growth in population came a growth in classes, an expansion of classrooms, and an increase in extracurricular activities. Today, with an enlarged building, some 1200 more students and almost 70 more teachers, Mr. Sharp is still showing the way for Howe students. Besides Mr. Sharp, seven teachers have been here since our first September of '38, instructing at first just students of the Irvington community and now those of all the northeast side communities.

Our Howe teachers have attended schools in thirteen different states and several have studied abroad in Spain, Italy, France, Cuba, and Mexico.

Fifty-nine of our teachers have obtained their Master's degrees, and many have taken additional work above the Master's level.

Teaching does not stop with just reading, writing, and arithmetic as Howe teachers know. Sponsoring our after school activities and advising us in our personal problems is just as much a part of their job as is tutoring after class those who need extra help. Due to their influence and guidance many Howeites have chosen to follow them in a teaching career.

Mr. Sharp pauses for a moment in the middle of a busy schedule to pose for our camera.

We were all deeply saddened by the death of Mr. Ray Bowman on December 18, 1956. It came as a shock to all those who knew and respected him.

Mr. Bowman had been a member of the Howe faculty for 13 years, and currently was head of the physical education department, and coach of the track and cross country teams.

A number of projects showing the loyalty of his former boys are now underway. Several organizations are making plans to establish a lasting award in Mr. Bowman's honor. There is to be an annual award presented to the most valuable cross country runner. There will also be a plaque in Mr. Bowman's honor to hang in the hall to help preserve his memory to the future generations at Howe.

Howe pays tribute to Mr. Bowman

Coming to us in 1943, Mr. Bowman had previously taught at several other schools in Indiana.

While at Howe his track teams compiled a 68-37 won-lost record, and also captured five sectional championships.

Mr. Bowman attended Windfall High School in Tipton county. He received his Master's Degree at Indiana University, where he was a member of both the track and baseball teams.

In one of his gym classes, Mr. Bowman administers a tuberculosis test to the boys.

Important roles are played behind the scenes

phen, Irwin Epperly, Harry Johnson, John Larkin, Mrs. Florence Wells, Matron.

Throughout the year, the custodians are always busy keeping Howe properly equipped. In the summer there is painting to do, floors to wax, and windows to wash. During the school year they are constantly faced with odd jobs such as sweeping floors, and preparing for assemblies.

Without the staff of custodians headed by Mr. Horton, the building would soon "fall apart."

Under the direction of Mrs. Arla Hunt, the cafeteria workers keep Howeites well fed. During the year, the cafeteria serves well over 500,000 nourishing meals to hungry students.

Thus we turn to the last page of the 1956-'57 calendar . . .

Fall, winter, spring—each season has its big dates encircled here to be remembered through the year and far into the future.

Worrying over that big exam, laughing in assembly, making "A's", and the friendly chats with teachers at conference time vie with memories of cheering at games and applauding the Pleasant Run Revue acts.

Vacation starts, and for the last time until next September we surge out the front Tower entrance, heading for the parking lot and home; but more than once we'll look back on these days spent at Howe and find ourselves wishing it were September once again.
